ORDER

The Department of Human Services and Hennepin County began this contested case proceeding on February 10, 1998, by issuing and serving a Notice of and Order for Hearing. This matter was set for hearing beginning at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, May 26, 1998, at the Office of Administrative Hearings, Suite 1700, 100 Washington Square Building, 100 Washington Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Before the hearing occurred, the parties advised the Administrative Law Judge that the sole basis for Ms. Jenkins' appeal was a challenge to the County's earlier finding that she had committed maltreatment of a child. The parties subsequently requested the Administrative Law Judge to stay this license revocation proceeding for a reasonable period of time to allow Ms. Jenkins to pursue a separate administrative appeal of the County's maltreatment finding. By letter entered on May 26, 1998, the Administrative Law Judge stayed proceedings for that purpose. It now appears that Ms. Jenkins has exhausted those other administrative remedies.

In view of these developments,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. That the parties appear for a hearing in this matter at the Office of Administrative Hearings, Suite 1700, 100 Washington Square, Minneapolis, Minnesota, on Monday, August 16, 1999, at 9:30 a.m;

2. That the parties are advised that under the rules of the Office of Administrative Hearings^[1] failure to appear at that hearing without the prior consent of the Administrative Law Judge shall constitute a default, and the Administrative Law Judge may take the allegations of or the issues set out in the Notice of and Order for Hearing issued on February 10, 1998, as true or deemed proved without further evidence.

Dated this 1st day of July, 1999.

BRUCE H. JOHNSON
Administrative Law Judge
